Future Developments is a collection of ~~13~~ 14 15 artists (or maybe more, you just never know) whose work will be employed to create an ad hoc sequence of distinct but relatively related exhibitions to build the whole of the exhibition. This ever-changing show, with a new iteration every two weeks or so (depending on how I feel), will include several artists previously exhibited at the gallery; a former undergraduate classmate of yours truly; someone with whom I share a birthday; a past exhibitor at Art of This; and two artists I have yet to meet in person. To keep you on your toes, as they say, there may even be some surprises, cameos, guest appearances, that sort of thing. And every Saturday at 4, please join us for Happy Hour on the Patio.

For the second iteration of Future Developments, please welcome a new collection of left-handed drawings by Al Freeman, a pair of 'wish you had been at that party' paintings by Alicia Gibson, a few oldies but feel-good goodies from Chris Johanson and a few home furnishings from Michael Mott, all accompanying Aaron Spangler's mighty sculpture which just took a half hour to move three feet. Upcoming iterations and events will be posted on the website and via email and social media.
